

THE STATE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Any person employed by the federal, state or local government or by a public or non-public elementary or secondary school or an institution of higher learning from performing the duties of a speech-language pathologist, an audiologist, a teacher of the speech and hearing handicapped, or a teacher of the deaf in the course of such employment.

1. Is it permissible for a teacher of the speech and hearing handicapped (TSHH) who does not hold a professional license as a speech-language pathologist to provide speech-language pathology services to preschool students with disabilities while working for a special education program approved under §4410 of the Education Law?

employed by

in the course of such employment,

3. Are employees of §4410 programs that are approved to provide only Special Education Itinerant Teacher services (SEIT) and/or multidisciplinary evaluations under §200.16 of the Regulati

social work, assistive technology services, other appropriate