5. Management Principles and Decision Making	No conflict of interest is evident in the described role of the board and/or individuals filling executive and management roles, and as applicable individuals with ownership interest, in establishing policies that define management principles and decision making. (A conflict of interest exists when a board member or executive manager's personal or business interests may be advanced by an action of the governing structure.)

8. Internal Controls

Provision of internal controls is clearly described and includes:
ensuring a quality control environment;
performing a risk assessment;
designing effective policies and procedures;
providing clear communication throughout the agency; and conducting ongoing monitoring of policies and procedures.

Internal controls include both preventive control activities (i.e., those that would deter the instance of noncompliance, errors or fraud such as thorough documentation and authorization practices); and detective control activities (i.e., those that identify undesirable "occurrences" after the fact such as reconciliation).

9. Code of Ethics

The Code of Ethics includes a:

Conflict of Interest policy, policy outlining the procedure for reporting fraud, waste and abuse, and Whistleblower Policy protecting employees from retaliation for disclosing information concerning acts of wrongdoing, misconduct, malfeasance or other inappropriate behavior. The policy addresses reporting responsibility and procedures, no retaliation, confidentiality and handling of reporting violations.
