IAAP 4+1 Pathway

Individual Arts Assessment Pathway (IAAP) At A Glance Overview

Individual Arts Assessment Pathway (IAAP) Year 1

Teachers

Introduce IAAP requirements and survey student interest.

Follow District's plan for collection and storage of creative works either physically or digitally as applicable

Assist students select artwork and artifacts that demonstrate their progress and growth through the year should they continue with the IAAP.

Students

During first unit of study (Foundation level arts class) gain information on the IAAP 4+1 Pathway from your teacher.

Meet with teacher for consultation to discuss interest or express tentative interest.

Discuss and plan out HSII electives for the following year(s).

Select one to two creative works that meet State determined IAAP portfolio criteria with guidance from teacher.

Individual Arts Assessment Pathway (IAAP) Year 2

Teachers

Assist students in development of their creative ideas.

Provide feedback on creative works.

Develop (or utilize) tools for peer and self assessment.

Assist student in choosing work for their Select portfolio and counsel on works included

Students

Declare intention to continue the IAAP during second unit of study (HSII electives).

Self-select, with teacher guidance, two-three creative works that meet the appropriate Arts Standards and Performance Indicators at the HSII Accomplished level using a locally developed rubric or other mechanism. This process of self-selection (curation) transitions a portfolio from a Working to Select portfolio of two and/or two to three works that are saved for final submission.

Introducing students to the Individual Arts Assessment Pathway (IAAP)

Students who choose the IAAP 4+1 Pathway will:

The Individual Arts Assessment Pathway (IAAP) offers students an opportunity to actively engage in artistic research by developing, executing, revising their artistic projects while receiving guidance from their arts teachers and feedback from their peers.

Generate their own artistic projects and goals in consultation with their arts teachers

Create a collection of creative works (minimum 5) for a final portfolio which is submitted for local grading

Collect evidence of feedback, the artistic process, and creative work revision and presentation

Develop a final reflective statement

Additional information on mandatory portfolio requirements for visual and media arts, music, theatre, and dance can be found in the Mandatory Portfolio Requirements section in the discipline specific NYS IAAP Implementation Guides

Formative assessment and the IAAP

Assessments that are authentic and based on real world arts-making tasks are vital to support student learning. Quality arts assessments, both summative and formative, will provide students with opportunities to engage in diverse approaches, styles and interpretations of work, and demonstrate artistic literacy within the discipline (NYS Guidance on implementing the 2017 Learning Standards for the Arts, p. 17)
