

President
89 Washington

September 15, 1953

TO: Superintendents of Schools
FROM: Mary Ellen Elia Mary Ellen Elia
SUBJECT: District Curriculum

As you are planning for this year's grading policies, consequences for students' grades as grading policies are determined by open local boards, any decision to use

The State Education Department does not require or recommend that students use Regents examinations as a basis for the calculation of an

As in the past
Education

I wish you a successful start to a new and busy year.

c: District Superintendents